Natural Beauty Power

*Protect your skin
by yourself.*

New series "FLORA" is launched in the high-quality brand "PARUNOS" that has been never changed eternally.

The "Parunos series" was born in 1992. The aging care series, which mainly uses natural ingredients and supports the prevention of aging of bare skin with low irritation, was launched after many years of research and development. Since then, for about 30 years, the composition of fragrance-free, synthetic colorants, and naturally derived ingredients has not changed, and also as a safe and secure, high-quality skin care product, Parunos has been loved and supported by many users across generations.

Devoting yourself to work, spending busy days, bringing up your children, enjoying hobbies and playing sports.

"Parunos" has been standing closely to aged women while enjoying their daily lives.

"Flora" was born of the new skin care series with inheriting trust and directing to the next generation.

If you want your bare skin to be even better,
choose "FLORA"

Originally, the skin has the power to heal itself to protect from dryness and irritation, and the power to repair the part damaged by external stimuli and regenerate into a sound state.

"Flora" approaches the original power of the skin, namely draws out the original power of the skin and restores the balance.

In addition, the effect of the material themselves help to care for the skin while supplementing the natural healing power, enhances the barrier and moisturizing function that protects the skin while growing the indigenous good bacteria (Pre-Bio effect) on the skin, leading to moisturized skin.

"Flora" is a skin-friendly skin care series that is less irritating to the skin and can be safely used by people with dry or sensitive skin.

Point 1

Use cosmetic components with a proven track record to make your skin firm and shiny

This product formulates natural cosmetic components such as Morus alba root extract (mulberry extract), Paeonia albiflora root extract, Saxifrage sarmentosa extract, that have a proven track record in Parunos skin care products. Further mixing in nutrients that match the purpose of each product, by which lead you even stepping up to a beautiful skin.

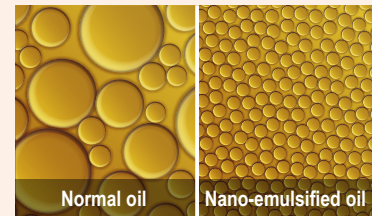

Point 2

Improve the condition of your skin while maintaining your skin's balance of common bacteria
Pre-Biotic

Ingredients (Oligosaccharides, Fermented lactic acid bacteria extract) promote the cultivation of a good bacteria for beautiful skin, allowing you to thoroughly protect your skin from fluctuated condition while keeping your skin's balance of common bacteria. This product keeps your skin moist, leading to soft skin.

Point 3

Nano-emulsified oil particles gently support your skin's barrier function and give the moisture into your skin that tends to be deficient.

Nano-emulsification allows tiny oil particles to penetrate through the outer layer (cuticle) of your skin. This keeps your skin moist for a long time while protecting your skin from external irritants. Skin-beautifying ingredients further more support moisturization and barrier function.
