Flora creates present and future beauty.
With Flora, you will love your natural skin.

Originally, Skin has the power to heal itself to protect it from dryness and irritation, and the power to repair the damaged parts by external stimuli and regenerate it into a healthy state. "Flora" was developed with the aim of approaching the natural power of the skin, drawing out the original power and regaining the balance. In addition, the effect of the material itself enhances the natural healing power while caring for the skin, so that is a skin care series which is gentle on the skin and can be used safely by people with dry or sensitive skin with less irritation, which is fragrance-free, color-free, and contains high-quality naturally-derived ingredients for low irritation.

Parunos Flora Moist Cleansing Jell

Point 1

Improve the condition of your skin

The cleansing gel that contains naturally derived cleansing and moisturizing ingredients to reduce the burden on the skin. Contains soap nuts, a natural cleansing ingredient that maintains the balance of bacteria on the skin and complements the growth of good bacteria. Prevents skin irritating friction and dryness.

Point 2

High-quality Jell ingredients of higher adhesion on your skin, allowing it to work effectively even on small dirt particles trapped in your skin's pores. While improving massage effectiveness, your skin won't feel tight after washing, but it will become moist and elastic. This gel also treats aged adult concerns such as dullness and stiffness, promoting super soft skin that's shiny and full of moisture.

Point 3

This gel formulation contains various botanical extracts and natural ingredients to aid in skin care. The cartomer and BG in this high-quality gel are also used in medical care and protect your skin from irritants such as abrasion and dryness, while the botanical ingredients of Damask rose flower water, Geranium oil, and Wild rose oil add a pleasant aroma and moisturizing power. In addition to the cosmetic ingredient of Artemisia princeps leaf extract of a proven track record in Parunos's skin care products, the jell contains ingredients such as Morus alba root extract and Rosa roxburghii extract have high moisturizing and protective function. Your skin will be well moisturized, feeling like you're wearing a facial mask while cleansing.

✓ Safe for your skin

Free of perfumes, synthetic colorants, petroleum-based surfactants, silicones, parabens, and ethanol.

How to Use

1

Lightly wash your face with lukewarm water. For point make-up and lipstick, it is recommended to wipe them off with a special remover in advance.

2

Pick up a cherry size granular and spread it from the T zone and U zone to the entire face in a circular motion.

3

Once you have applied it well, rinse the skin with lukewarm water to the extent of no much feel the sliminess.

Points to use well

- * 1 Since the jell is soft, it is okay without pre-washing, but pre-washing by itself makes cleansing smoother and more effective.
- * 2 Adjust the amount while observing the condition of your skin. If you apply too much, the oil in the sebum will be entirely washed up, disappeared on and your skin will be dried up.
- * 3 Rough washing will hurt your skin. To keep the jell smooth for a long time during a face-wash massage, add a moderate amount of water to keep your skin moisturized. Be sure to rinse it up while the skin being moisturized.
